CORN PLANTER -
- ATTACHMENT

D. W. Matsler, Inventor, Patentee and Manufacturer.

"There is nothing that succeeds like success." After three years experimenting, I have succeeded in perfecting a Furrow Opener Attachment to Corn Planters, and it has proven a success, not to myself only, but to my neighbors as well. Those desiring information can write me at Chanute, Kas., or call at Alex Baird's Blacksmith Shop, where machines are on sale.

CORRESPONDENCE.

house was well attended.

Jesse Stewart purchased a new buggy of L. L. Hughes this week.

Andy Green, of Fredonia, is working for his Uncle John at present.

A brother-in-law of Will Stevens, from Humboldt, spent Sunday with him.

Miss Emma and Fannie Magatagan went to Chanute Saturday and stayed till Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Hutson gave his new house a coat of paint last week, which greatly improved its appearance.

Mr. Stevens has a hand working for him who says to plant beans the 100th day of the year and they will not freeze.

The Epworth League at the High Prairie Church was well attended last Sunday night. Everybody come out next Sunday night.

Orrie Colaw's school at Omega, was out last Friday. The patrons of the district surprised him with a dinner.
Orrie taught a good school.

Orrie Colaw, Henry Green, and Martin Maxwell left here this week for Emporia, where they will attend school for the coming term. Success to you, boys.

The public sale on the streets of Rest, was well attended. Everything sold like hot cakes, most of which were old roosters which sold from 12 1/2 cents to 25 cents. Geo. Denny was the auctioneer.

If you have ever seen a child in the agony of croup, you can appreciate the gratitude of the mothers who know that One Minute Cough Cure relieves their little ones as quickly as it is administered. Many homes in this city are never without it.—Boschert & Williams.

Vilas.

Wednesday March 31, '97—Potatoes and oats are mostly in the ground.

The Parsons nursery is making a large delivery here today.

Some of our farmers are sowing flax this week.

The heavy rain last night will delay farming considerably.

Larrik & Guber's fine cigars are on sale at C. P. Swank's at all times.

Miss Minnie Simmons visited in Chanute the fore part of this week.

day from Manhattan where he has been attending school.

Enough money has been subscribed to get a good organ for the church here and we expect to see it arrive most any day.

P. Ware and wife are at Kansas City this week where Mr. Ware will have an operation performed on a cancer upon his face.

Hans Moore was in our city Monday.
Hans is one of the best farmers there is on high prairie. He is always happy and contented.

The Twp. S. S. Convention was well attended last Sunday and an excellent program was carried out. The next convention will be held at the Zion church.

The Sunday school at Peach Grove is in a flourishing condition and more of the small boys and young men should attend it. There is no better one in this township.

One minute is all the time necessary to decide from personal experience that One Minute Cough Cure does what its name implies.—Boschert & Williams.

Center Grove.

Wednesday March 31, 1897.—There was a party at C. Hall's last Saturday evening.

sas City and Chicago where he will remain for awhile.

R. H. Blair is one of the most social men in Cottage Grove township now-days, as he is calling on the people right and left.

A little daughter is reported at Manford Osborn's week before last. Manford had recovered sufficiently last Sunday to go fishing.

Don't allow the lungs to become impaired by the continuous irritation of a cough. It is easier to prevent consumption than to cure it. One Minute Cough Cure taken early, will ward off any fatal lung trouble.—Boschert & Williams.

Pleasant Valley.

Monday, March 29.—A Mr. Troxel, of Abilene, Kansas, was introducing Dr.
Gish's Family Medicines last week, on the same plan of the Baker Co.'s work.

from Eleria, Ohio that her mother is very ill. She will probably start tomorrow to visit her.

Tom Malone passed through Rollin
Sunday afternoon, pushing his bicycle.
He had been to Shaw, we suppose to see his best girl. Anyhow he broke his bike and had to walk home.

Rural.

Tuesday, March 30.—The rain Sunday night has delayed the farmers another week.

C. S. Nation and wife were in this vicinity Sunday and called on J. F.
Pullen.

Dr. Sweeney lost a good cow last week, and now tells us that his hogs are sick.

The musical entertainment at Rural last Saturday night from want of hearers, was a failure.

Several farmers have completed their oat sowing. Not as many sown as usual, but we hope for a better crop.

Mrs. McAtee's horse ran away with the buggy last week, demolishing the top. Luckily, no one was in the buggy.

Our worthy school teacher went fishing Saturday, and we are informed that he caught about twenty-five pounds.

Mrs. Thadens Stevens finished gathering and hauling their corn last Saturday. She has rented her farm to I.
Irwin for the coming season.
